All extension requests must be postmarked on or before the original due date of the return, unless the original due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. In that case, your request must be postmarked on or before the business day following that Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. If you are a calendar year filer, your request for a 2008 filing extension must be postmarked on or before April 15, 2009.

An Arizona extension cannot be granted for more than six months beyond the original due date of the return. Arizona will accept a valid federal extension for the period covered by the federal extension. This includes the automatic six month federal extension.

CHECK ONE: <input type="checkbox"/> This is a request for an automatic 6-month filing extension: Calendar Year Filers	Fiscal Tax Year Ending	Return Due Date

You will be liable for the extension underpayment penalty if at least 90 percent of your tax liability disclosed by your return has not been paid by the original due date of the return. You will be liable for the late payment penalty if you do not pay 100 percent of the tax shown on your return by the return's original due date. Interest accrues on any additional tax due from the original due date of the return until paid.

Making Your Payment: Individuals may make extension payments by check, electronic check, money order, or credit card. Fiduciaries filing Form 141AZ must make extension payments by check or money order.

Check or Money Order: Make your check or money order payable to Arizona Department of Revenue and mail your check with Form 204 to the first address listed below. The department cannot accept checks or money orders in foreign currency. You must make payment in U.S. dollars.

Electronic Payment From Your Checking or Savings Account: You can make a 2008 extension payment with an electronic payment from your checking or savings account. There is no fee to use this method. To make an electronic payment, go to www.aztaxes.gov and click on the "Make a Payment" link. The "E-Check" option in the "Payment Method" drop-down box will debit the amount from the checking or savings account that you specify. You will receive a confirmation number. Please keep this confirmation number as proof of payment.

Credit Card Payment: You can make a 2008 extension payment through a third-party service provider using your Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express credit card. Go to www.aztaxes.gov, click on the "Make a Payment" link; the credit card option will take you a third-party vendor site. The provider will charge you a convenience fee based on the amount of your tax payment.

NOTE: If you are filing under a federal extension but are making an Arizona extension payment by credit card or electronic payment, do not mail Form 204 to us. We will apply your estimated tax payment to your account.
